Hi Samantha, not sure how (or when) you want to give me your ERC comments, but in case you want to make edits in the clean tech edited version of the BaP tox review and supplemental info, see attached. (I know typos drive you crazy!)

I sent you a link to the response to comment document on SharePoint in case you want to make changes directly.

Have a good weekend and see you next week!

Hi Karen and Andrew, if possible, can you make your edits in response to ERC comments to the tech edited version of the assessment and supplemental info? See attached, hope they don't crash your computer!

Also, I recently sent out a new link to the response to comments on SharePoint. Please make your revisions to that version.

Thanks!
